

Service Directory

As an additional service to my clients, the following listing of services has been compiled from various references. This list is in no way complete and does not represent a referral by me or Advantage Home & Environment Inspections, Inc., but does reflect positive references & referrals that either myself or other people have heard or know about these services. For a more complete service reference, please consult the 'Yellow Pages' in the local phone book. If you experience a negative experience with one of these contractors, please contact Advantage Home & Environment so we may remove their name from this list.
